THE GAZETTE.

TUESDAY EVENING, APRIL 3 1894.

Londonn Notes. A new iron bridge was finished about a week or ten days ago over Sycoliu on the W. & O. R. R. some three or four miles east of Leesburg. The old court house is to-day a thing of the past. The entire structure has been razed to the ground, and in a little while work will be commenced on the walls of the new house.

On Saturday evening last Mr. S. Carroll Chancellor, of Leesburg, was thrown from his horse on the turnpike some three or four miles south of that town, and painfully hurt.

Mr. Frank Adams, an old gentleman near about eighty years of age, residing hear Aldie, had the misfortune, while driving from his home towards Leesburg on Friday morning last, to fall from his vehicle, and in falling to be kicked by his horse, having his leg broken besides sustaining other injuries
